

INVITATION

Effective public administration – trends and practices

Tuesday 29th March 2022
9:00-13:00

Embassy of Finland, Kelenhegyi út 16/A
1118 Budapest

The aim of the seminar is to discuss recent trends and practices in public sector development in Finland and in Hungary. Main aims, contents and results of public sector reforms and civil service training in our countries will be presented as well as the challenges during the development processes. Furthermore, an overview of Worldwide Governance Indicators will be provided.

Registrate by 21 March here.

FINNAGORN

Embassy of Finland
Budapest

Programme

9.00

Opening

Ambassador Markku Virri

9.15

Trends and latest development in state sector administration in Finland

Interim Director Anneli Temmes, FinnAgora

9.45

Public sector development in Hungary

Measuring efficiency of public administration in Hungary

National Public Service University: contribution to public sector development

Vice-rector Norbert Kis, National Public Service University

10.15

Discussion

10.30

Coffee break

10.50

International comparison of public sector, samples from the World Bank comparison

Deputy Head of Mission Henna Knuuttila, Embassy of Finland

11.15

Strategy of public administration development in Hungary How to define the ultimate goals, outcomes and indicators

Professor Tamás Kaiser, National Public Service University

11.40

Final discussion

12-13

Joint buffet lunch