

Tantárgy neve: Historical Approach in Research of State and Public Administration	Kódja: KDRIDK313	Kreditszáma: 3
A tanóra típusa ¹ : ea. / szem. / gyak. / konz. és száma: előadás (10 óra nappali tagozat; 5 óra levelező tagozat)
A számonkérés módja (koll. / gyj. / egyéb ²): submitting a paper presenting the historical research method of the personal PhD research area
A tantárgy tantervi helye (hányadik félév):
Előtanulmányi feltételek (ha vannak) : -
Course description: Knowledge On the basis of the related literature the course aims to overview 1. Historical overview of forms of state and governance in European comparative context. I. – Establishment of state, patrimonial type of ruling a state. Power of the ruler, establishment and types of central and territorial state administration. Source types of the era. 2. Historical overview of forms of state and governance in European comparative context. II.– Forms and characteristics of the feudal state, changes in the ruler's power, the dissolution of the king's exclusive ownership, the feudal bond and its impact on the central and territorial administrative system. Source types of the era. 3. Historical overview of forms of state and governance in European comparative context. III. – The absolutistic state, development of the state bureaucracy. Central and territorial administration of the early modern states' in Europe. Source types of the era. 4. Historical overview of forms of state and governance in European comparative context. IV. – The dissolution of feudalism, revolutions and modernization of the 19th century. Turning from a feudal state into a constitutional one. The modern system of central and territorial administration of European states. Source types of the era. 5. Sources as basis of a historical research. – Laws, statutes, patents and different archive documents. Primary and secondary literature in the historical research. Methodology of the archival research in public administrative history. Competencies: By completing this course doctoral students get prepared to do a historical research in the subject era chosen by them to their PhD thesis. Moreover, they get an insight into the history of the European states' public administration system of the different periods of time, they will be able to identify the necessary sources to be researched according to each subject period and they will know how to perform a proper historical research.

¹ Ftv. 147. § tanóra: a tantervben meghatározott tanulmányi követelmények teljesítéséhez oktató személyes közreműködését igénylő foglalkozás (előadás, szeminárium, gyakorlat, konzultáció)

² pl. évközi beszámoló

A 3-5 legfontosabb kötelező, illetve ajánlott irodalom (jegyzet, tankönyv) felsorolása bibliográfiai adatokkal (szerző, cím, kiadás adatai, oldalak, ISBN)

Course materials:

Compulsory materials:

1. Norman Davies: Europe: A History. Random House, 2010.
2. John Merriman: A History of Modern Europe: From the Renaissance to the Present. W. W. Norton & Company; 2nd edition, 2004.
3. Gergely András - Máthé Gábor (ed.): The Hungarian State, 1000-2000. Thoousand Years in Europe. Budapest, Korona, 2000.
4. C.R. Kothari: Research Methodology: Methods and Techniques. New Age International Pvt Ltd Publishers; 2nd ed. edition, 2012.

Recommended literature:

1. Hillay Zmora: Monarchy, Aristocracy and State in Europe 1300-1800. Taylor & Francis, 2002
2. Imre Lakatos: The methodology of scientific research programmes, Cambridge University Press, Cambridge, 1978.
3. Robin Whitemore – Katherine Knafl: The integrative review: updated methodology In: JAN - Informing Practice and Policy Worldwide through Research and Scholarship. Volume 52, Issue 5, pp. 546-553.

Tantárgy felelőse (név, beosztás, tud. fokozat): Dr. Zsuzsanna Peres, PhD, associate professor

Tantárgy oktatásába bevont oktató(k), ha vannak (név, beosztás, tud. fokozat)

-