

WHO WE ARE

The John N. Lauer Leadership Training Program was established to allow young Hungarian Americans and well-qualified English-speaking Hungarians from Hungary and neighboring countries to gain first-hand experience at various Washington-based institutions to motivate them for public service in their respective places of origin, as well as to provide opportunity to build contacts in the US in their professional areas of expertise.

WHAT WE OFFER

The Coalition's Internship grant will cover living expenses and local transportation expenses in the Washington, DC area for the duration of internship. The internship's duration will depend on the requirements of the host organization, but shall not be longer than four months. Interns are also expected to complete a Coalition project of mutual interest during their stay in Washington DC.

HOW TO APPLY

There is an online database which enables applicants to submit their applications online. Applicants have to create a user profile and upload the requested documents.

Applications are accepted on a rolling basis and should be submitted by registering at:
