

Course code (filled in by the Office for Education)
Course title	State institutions of economic governance
Module title	Public Governance and Political Science
Level of the Course	MA
Institute/Department responsible for course	Institution of State Governance and Public Policy
Course director	Prof. Dr. Bordás Mária
Name of the Lecturer(s)	Prof. Dr. Bordás Mária
Number of the ECTS credits	5 ECTS
Teaching methodology	Lectures: Class contact teaching Assignments Individually: class participation, team project
Language of instruction	English
Prerequisite(s) for the course	Fluency in English
Semester	both semesters
Course description	In this course, the broad academic aim is to enable students to become familiar with the tools of the economic governance on national state level, including the regulating, monitoring and controlling role of the state, the organizing of public services, the management of public property and using of public found, the presentation of the legal environment of them. It is well known that the different economic and public service tools are playing very important role in the transition period. The role of public service is also determinant factor of economic competitiveness.
Learning outcomes and course competences	During the course, following competences are going to be developed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Understanding historical and comparative aspects of economic administration tools and institutions;</li> <li>• Understanding the role and directions of the state in managing economic processes;</li> <li>• Review and systematization capability in the economic administration system;</li> <li>• Analysing and differentiating the initial liberal, monopoly capitalist, communist and advanced market economies from the point of view of economic administration;</li> <li>• With this knowledge, the student can recognize and systematize the specificities, essentials of the emerging economic administrative problems, identify them and propose possible administrative measures to solve them.</li> </ul>
Weekly content of the course	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Factors determining economic governance: public policy, historically developed</li> <li>2. Characteristics of economic governance after WWII.</li> <li>3. The role of regions' public service in the development of economy</li> <li>4. The regulating role of economic governance:</li> <li>5. The deregulation and the reduction of administrative burden of enterprises.</li> <li>6. Competition law models and competition policy in developed market economies:</li> <li>7. Price regulation in the public service sector:</li> <li>8. Public and private law protection of consumers</li> <li>9. Public law rules of state-municipal property. The practice of asset management.</li> <li>10. Privatization as a means of economic recovery</li> <li>11. The privatization of the economic public sector and the problems of efficiency.</li> <li>12. Forms of private sector's participation and cooperation in public property management</li> <li>13. Effectiveness of economic efficiency in the reform of state supply systems</li> <li>14. Introduction of the most important cases of the European Union economic public laws with special emphasis on the new tendencies</li> <li>15. Evaluation of the course.</li> </ol>

Compulsory and recommended reading materials	Compulsory literature: Joan W. Allen: The Private Sector in State Services Delivery (The Urban Institute Press, Washington, DC. 1989.) W. Streeck – P. C. Schmitter: Private Interest Government (Sage Publications, California, 1985.) Recommended literature: A. B. Passarelli: Public Relations in Business, Government and Society (Libraries Unlimited, Inc., Colorado, 1989.) J-E. Lane: State and Market – the Politics of the Public and Private (Sage Publications, London, 1985.) W. N. Keyes: Government Contracts (West Publishing Co. USA, 1979.) C. E. VanHorn: Politics and Public Policy (Division of Congressional Quarterly Inc. Washington, D.C. 1992.) P. A. Hall: Governing the Economy ( Polity Press, Oxford, 1986.) K. Janda – J. M. Berry – J. Goldman: The Challenge of Democracy – Government in America (Houghton Mifflin Company, USA, 1995.) D. Waldo: The Administrative State (Holmes &amp; Meier Publishers, Inc. USA, 1984.) D. H. Rosenbloom – R. O’Leary: Public Administration and Law (Marcel Dekker, Inc. USA, 1997.) D. H. Rosenbloom: Public Administration – Understanding Management, Politics, and Law in the Public Sector (Random House, Inc. USA, 1986.) E.S. Savas: Privatization - The Key to Better Government (Chatham House Publishers Inc. USA, 1987.) Istvan Tozsa – Balázs B. Budai: M-Government – T-Government Latest Technological Trends in Public Administration (Adamas Studio, Budapest, 2006.)
Assessment methods and criteria	1. Presence at the lectures (required on the basis of the exam regulations) 2.PPT presentation giving based on the students’ research and the list of the topics given by the lecturer
Grading	Five Scale Grading
office hours/contact details	bordas.maria@uni-nke.hu